When parents are involved in their child's learning, students do better in school and everyone benefits. Parents find it easier to help their children learn. Teachers and principals are better supported and enjoy positive relationships with parents.

Students improve, classrooms improve, schools improve and the entire community benefits.

C. BY-LAWS

What's in your School Council's By-laws?

The Ontario Ministry of Education resource: School Councils: A Guide for Members (see resource link on Page 25) provides guidance on establishing school council by-laws. Ontario Regulation 612/00 provides information on mandate and roles and responsibilities for the school council.

At a minimum, the by-laws must address:

- Election procedures
- Filling vacancies

- Number of parent members on the council and number of member required for quorum
- Number, description, and duties of executive members
- Any requirements regarding signing officer
- The establishment and roles of committees
- Communication protocol
- Process for seeking community input

Once by-laws have been developed, the school council should set a review timeline, although they do not need to be rewritten each year.

- School council purpose and objectives;

C. FUNDRAISING TIP SHEET

- 1. Begin early and publicize. Start planning your fundraiser early to develop realistic goals and timelines. Publicize early and often
- 2. Build the team. Assign tasks; a Communicator who is great at sending out messages, a Counter who likes budgetary duties, and Task Master who reminds others of deadlines and schedules.
- 3. Set clear goals and timelines. This will keep everyone motivated, focused and on track.
- 4. Frequent Updates: Keep everyone informed. Remind parents and students when orders are due, and provide specific instructions for collecting and accounting for orders. Celebrate successes.
- 5. Keep the students involved. By making it meaningful, students will stay engaged. They will also develop social, goal-setting and customer service skills.
- 6. Effort vs. Benefit. Is the time invested worth it? Agree on a project that yields high gains for the time and effort.
- 7. Expand your reach. You can go beyond your own school community to gather support for your fundraiser. You may wish to work with community businesses and partners.
- 8. Celebrate and say, "Thank you." Let your volunteers know you appreciate them with thank you cards from the kids or a luncheon at the end of the fundraiser. Celebrate milestone goals.
- 9. Consider what people want. Most parents have enough smaller items. Consider a fundraiser that capitalizes on a fun family experience, consumable products or other fun items.
- 10. Avoid "Fundraiser Fatigue." Timing is important. Consider how many other fundraisers are occurring in the school.

D. EVENT PLANNING QUICK FACTS

When planning fun fairs and end-of-year activities, take into consider these risk management guidelines:

1. Assess the activity from a safety first perspective. Is the activity appropriate for a school setting? Should the risks be avoided or can they be managed?

OSBIE (Ontario School Board Insurance Exchange) considers the following list, high risk activities which are not recommended for a school event.

High risk activities Include:

- Dunk Tanks
- Diving into or sliding on foam or mud, ice or snow
- · Hot air balloon rides (tethered or untethered)
- Aircraft or helicopter rides from school property
- Animal rides
- Sky diving
- Use of fireworks or other pyrotechnic devices
- Use of air filled inflatable fun structures such as jumping castles
- Rock climbing walls
- 2. Ask promoter and fundraising companies for proper proof of liability insurance.
- 3. Ask to have the Board named as an additional insured on their policy.
- 4. Ensure that adequate supervision is in place to help prevent injuries.
- 5. It may be necessary to have parents sign informed consent forms and to make them aware of any risks associated with the activities.

There can be no greater gift than that of giving one's time and energy to help others without expecting anything in return. - Nelson Mandela

E. DECISION MAKING

Every attempt should be made to reach consensus. Where consensus is not possible, the Chair may need to consider putting the matter to a vote. In such instances voting procedures need to be specified, including determining what constitutes a quorum for voting purposes.

The school council should also develop a procedure for resolution of concerns and disputes, recognizing that every effort should be for resolution of such conflict at the school level. This procedure should be designed to fit within already established Board Policy/Procedures.

School Community Councils can arrive at decisions by:

The approach a SCC chooses for making decisions may vary depending on the issue. The first approach (majority vote) saves time and is efficient for simple, straight forward issues. The second approach, a school council may combine the methods — seek consensus from the school community and then confirm the decision by a majority vote.

Majority Vote Model.

This model, requires time for members to become informed about issues. The Chair calls for a vote once the discussion is finished. The advantage of this model is that a clear decision is made. The discussion period offers the opportunity for compromise as the motion may be modified. In situations where opinions are diverse and compromise is impossible, the majority vote may be the preferred model. The downside of this approach is that it can create a win/lose situation where some participants are dissatisfied with the outcome.

Consensus Building Model

This model requires each decision maker to agree with (but not necessarily with all parts of) the final outcome. Although they may differ on some aspects of the decision, school council members agree the total package best meets everyone's needs and supports it on that basis. If consensus cannot be reached on all or any part of a decision, a vote is taken.

The advantages to the consensus building model are that it:

- Ensures all council members have an effective voice
- Builds on differing perspectives and values
- Allows for flexibility in arriving at solutions
- Can build respect for differing values and viewpoints
- Can lead to better informed, more creative, balanced and long lasting decisions that has the support of the entire school council, and if unsuccessful, it allows for a decision to be made by voting.

F. CONFLICT RESOLUTION

Each school council must have a by-law(s) regarding conflict resolution as per Ontario Regulation 612/00 and in accordance with all applicable Board Policies and Procedures.

The following is a four-step approach to resolving internal conflict and other difficult matters:

- Acknowledge the conflict. As a group, acknowledge when a conflict exists and determine the source of the conflict. For example, is it related to facts? Goals? Processes? Values? Personal preferences? Beliefs? Communication?
- 2. Plan how to deal with the conflict. Once the source of the conflict is defined, decide how to deal with it. This may be done by the Chair, another individual on the council, or the entire council. (In particularly difficult times, it may be best to engage a person who has no association with the council to facilitate discussion and problem solving.) At this stage, all council members should reflect on the problem and be prepared to state their concerns and viewpoints.
- 3. Provide time for discussion. The Chair or whoever is facilitating the discussion should introduce the problem and ask each member for input so that the nature and source of the conflict is clear. Acknowledging each person by listening attentively sets the tone for problem solving and opens the council to a variety of solutions. Emotions should be accepted and dealt with since they are a part of conflict. If there is not likely a positive outcome during a meeting, then draw the meeting to a close to allow time for consultation.
- 4. Seek the best solution. As viewpoints and solutions are described, the individual facilitating the discussion deals with them one at a time. Following the discussion, the person facilitating the discussion may use a process for building consensus to arrive at a new solution. Council members will be asked the following questions: Can you live with this solution? Will you support the solution? Depending on the nature of the conflict, it is sometimes best for council members to have time to reflect on the proposed solution, with the decision to be finalized at a future meeting.

Note:

First point of contact if conflict continues is the School Administration. If after following the above steps, your school council still feels strongly that the situation requires further consideration you may appeal to the Superintendent of Education (Family of Schools [FOS]). If the Superintendent of Education (FOS) is not able to resolve the dispute, the Director may appoint an external mediator to assist in resolving the dispute.

Remember, you are welcome to speak with your local trustee at any time to share concerns or make suggestions. Depending on the circumstances, however, there is a possibility that you will be asked to follow the above steps in order to best meet your needs.

G. SOCIAL MEDIA

Use of Social Networking, Digital Communication Applications, and Web Sites by the SCC

General Provisions regarding all forms of Social Media Activity on behalf of the SCC

SCC members will ensure that information communicated publically through social media applications shall not reveal personal information about staff, students, parents or other members of the school community. Information that is inappropriate for posting may include, but is not limited to photographs and/or videos of students or staff for which no consent has been provided, school financial information, school plans, or other school administrative information.

Any inappropriate or demeaning references to staff, students, parents or other members of the school community communicated through social networking applications represent a contravention of Board policy.

Inappropriate use of electronic communication and social networking is contrary to Board policy, and may result in criminal charges or civil actions. Examples of inappropriate use include, but are not limited to:

- a. Making inappropriate online comments that are defamatory in nature;
- b. Disclosing confidential information about the Board, school, students and colleagues;
- c. Posting the work of others without proper attribution, in breach of copyright law;
- d. Breaching a court-ordered publication ban;
- e. Inciting hatred against an identifiable group;
- f. Contravening the Youth Criminal Justice Act by disclosing information about a minor;
- g. Using technology to criminally or otherwise harass a student, colleague, or others;
- h. Using a computer to lure a child or for juvenile prostitution; and
- i. Exchanging or forwarding compromising photos, video or audio recordings of children which are of a sexually explicit nature.

Use of the school website

It is recommended that schools provide space on their web page for general information about the SCC. Content to be shared may include: SCC member names, meeting dates, agendas, minutes, and general SCC information.

Only DDSB staff may have editing rights to the school websites, so a staff liaison may be appointed to post SCC information as requested by the SCC chair in conjunction with the school administrator.

Use of Social Networking Tools (YouTube, Facebook , Twitter, Remind, etc.) for SCC purposes.

SCC members wishing to use "Facebook" or "YouTube"— like applications as a method of communicating with the broader community on behalf of the SCC must ensure that they have received permission from their school administrator or supervisor and provided the school administrator with any passwords and access to these sites.

SCC shall ensure that the application's privacy settings are set such that the public may view the content without the need to be "accepted," "friended" or "followed" by the SCC administrator of the space.

Canada's Anti-Spam Legislation

Canada's Anti-Spam Legislation (CASL) came into effect on July 1, 2014. Under the legislation, anyone (including teachers, principals, office staff, etc.) who sends an electronic message that encourages participation in a commercial activity must do the following:

- 1. Obtain the consent of the recipient
- 2. Provide identification information about the sender
- 3. Provide an unsubscribe option so recipients can remove themselves from the list

For more information on CASL, visit the Government of Canada's website: www.fightspam.gc.ca

What is a commercial electronic message?

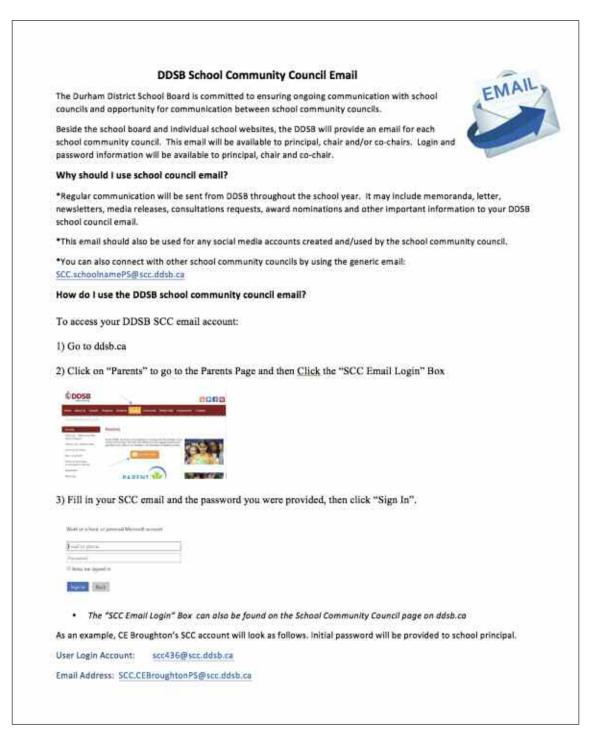

A commercial electronic message is a message sent to an electronic address that encourages participation in a commercial activity. Examples of electronic messages include emails, text messages, instant messages, telephone messages or direct messages on social media (e.g. Facebook or Twitter).

Messages are considered commercial when they have to do with the purchase of a good or service. Examples of commercial electronic messages you might receive from your school include messages about:

- Fundraising events
- Yearbook sales
- Sale of student photos
- Information about purchasing team uniforms
- School newsletters that contain commercial information

I. PARENT ENGAGEMENT IDEAS

When parents are engaged in their child's learning, students do better in school and everyone benefits. Parents find it easier to help their child learn. Teachers and principals are better supported and enjoy positive relationships with parents.

Students improve, classrooms improve, schools improve and the entire community benefits. (CODE, Planning Parent Engagement, 2012)

Various resources and frameworks can be used to assist schools in organizing and promoting promising Parent Engagement Practices.

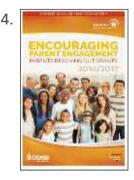

- The Ontario Ministry of Education provides a checklist to begin planning. https://tinyurl.com/6shyomc
- 2. The Council of Ontario Directors of Education (CODE) produced a Planning Parent Engagement guidebook and toolkit to promote involvement and support. https://tinyurl.com/y8vawb3w
- 3. Dr. Joyce Epstein for the National Network of Partnership Schools (NNPS) from Johns Hopkins University has developed a framework for defining six different types of parent involvement. This framework assists educators in developing school and family partnership programs. Her work is referenced in the CODE guidebook. From 2011–14, over 70 elementary and secondary schools in the DDSB were in-serviced following the template developed by Dr. Joyce Epstein. DDSB examples are listed beside these keys. https://tinyurl.com/ycg5ubh4

I. FUNDRAISING PLANNING SHEET

Fundraising Planning Form Logistics

Guiding Principles and Best Practice considerations:

Fundraising

- Permitted under Ministry Regulation 612 and DDSB policy 5131
- Approved by the school Principal after consultation with staff, SCC and student council
- Has the potential to enhance parent engagement and contribute to a student's educational experience

School Community

- Activities support student achievement and do not detract from the learning environment.
- Fundraising activities should reflect the diversity, values and priorities of the local school community, and ensure accessibility and inclusivity.
- Privacy must be respected. The personal information of staff, students or other individuals is not shared for the purposes of fundraising without prior consent. (MFIPPA)

Safety

- The safety of students is a primary consideration in all fundraising activities.
- Student fundraising activities may require supervision and should be age-appropriate.
- Such activities may take place on or off school property

Accountable & Transparent

- A fundraising activity does not result in any person, including school board staff or volunteers, benefiting materially or financially from the activity.
- Fundraising has a designated purpose and the proceeds are used for that purpose.
- Transparent financial reporting practices are established.
